

Ohio State Highway Patrol Diversity Mission Statement

The Ohio State Highway Patrol is committed to being an agency that includes people of diverse backgrounds and fully utilizes their many talents to provide the public with services of the highest quality. The agency will employ effective methods of recruitment and will support the success and advancement of members of diverse groups within the organization.

The Ohio State Highway Patrol is committed to fostering understanding, communication and respect among all people in the agency, sworn and non-sworn, to include persons of different races, religions, ages, genders, ethnic and cultural differences, nationalities, sexual orientation, disabilities, veterans and family status. We will capitalize on the strength emanating from these differences and draw on the abilities of all within the organization. We will promote an optimum workplace by attracting and retaining diverse personnel to serve Ohioans more creatively and effectively. We recognize a diverse workforce is pivotal to the success and the future of the Ohio State Highway Patrol.
