Akron woman arrested for Illegal Drug Conveyance at Lorain Correctional Institution

GRAFTON – An Akron woman is scheduled to appear in Elyria Municipal Court tomorrow on a felony charge after she was found attempting to convey crack cocaine and marijuana into the Lorain Correctional Institution today.

Troopers said Statoya Jones, 22, was charged with conveying drugs into a correctional facility, a third-degree felony.

Troopers and Department of Rehabilitation and Correction investigators developed information that Jones might attempt to deliver drugs into the Lorain Correctional Institution. Once inside the facility, Jones was approached by investigators and subsequently turned over the drugs.

Jones was incarcerated at the Lorain County Jail. If convicted, she could face up to five years in prison and a $10,000 fine.

The Ohio State Highway Patrol investigates criminal activity on state owned and leased property.
